

VANISHING ANIMALS

Find an animal in danger. Remember, this sign  shows that it's in danger. If all the animals of this kind die, then they won't be part of the world any more. Watch this animal for a while then answer the following questions.

Write the animal's name: _____

What kind of habitat does it probably live in? _____

Fill in this chart to help you determine how it has adapted to live in its habitat.

Animal Part	How it helps the animal fit into its habitat
Kind of feet
Kind of covering
Color and Pattern
Kind of teeth
Anything else interesting? Why might this animal be in danger? (Pick one or more answers)

___ People are hunting these animals for their body parts or use as pets.

___ People are hunting these animals for food or sport.

___ People are polluting this animal's habitat.

____ People are building towns, roads or airports where it lives.

____ People are cutting down this animal's habitat for grazing cattle or growing crops.

____ It is running out of the plants or animals it eats for food.

____ Your ideas: _____

What can people do to help this kind of animal stay a part of the world?
